'County should get involved': Fields

by LISA WILKIE

The purchase of Gander Mountain, located at the far northwest corner of Lake County, may just prove to be a major deciding issue for the selection of county board nominations when voters go to the polls in the March primary.

As the race for the Republican nomination narrows down, the candidates for the two seats on the Lake County Board are more and more stating their position on this proposed purchase.

The purchase of Gander Mountain for a forest preserve will be partially funded through a federal grant. The county will use $750,000 of an $885,250 grant obtained for the use of land acquisition and development. The rest of the $2 million purchase will be funded through taxpayers.

ANTIOCH TOWNSHIP SUPERVISOR, Jim Fields is one of seven candidates seeking the nomination, and he is taking a firm stance on the spending of taxpayers' money for this purpose. "It's not that the land is not a good piece of property, but the maintenance of the property will fall into the taxpayers' lap," Fields stated. "It is the county board's job to look into the future and see what money will be needed to maintain this piece of land," he added.

The supervisor, who grew up in Antioch, is also pledging to get the county government more involved with village's problems. "It's time for the county government to recognize the village's needs. The county board should be more aware of the small community's troubles and help do something about them," Fields said.

Fields, who has been active in village government since a zoning board appointment in 1973, will be up for re-election as a township supervisor next year. He realizes that his chances for Republican nomination for the election to fill one of two seats on the county board ride on voter turnout. "People have to vote," he commented. "Everyone can say that I can do a good job, but if they don't vote, I won't be elected."

IT IS PREDICTED THAT Fields can carry the Antioch vote, but he is conscious of getting endorsements from committeemen from Wauconda, Grant and Lake Villa Townships, to assure him of that all-important second vote from residents there. "I don't plan on doing anything for their support other than just being the person that I am. I really do stress that the county government needs to be more involved in these outlying communities, and that a lid has to be put on the use of taxpayers' money," Field stated.

Fields realizes that the times account for the change of his role in local government. "My biggest job as supervisor is providing general assistance to people," he said. "People are more aware of township government than they were a few years ago, and it is necessary to make oneself available to them," he concluded.

Other Republican candidates for the March 18 primary include Norm Geary, Grayslake, seeking re-election; Gerald Beyer, Wauconda, appointed this year to fill the late Harry Robin's seat; Donna Mae Littler, Grant Township; Barbara Behm, Fremont; Robert Fagan, Ingleside; and Doug MacGillis, Round Lake.

Two seeking the Democratic nomination are Tony Marsala, Round Lake, and John Stickle of Round Lake Beach.

Good news in The News

The Antioch Parks and Recreation Department is looking for a woman to be in charge of the school aged girls softball league which begins in the spring. In the past, the league has been quite successful, but it's time to start organizing now. Dee Lang or Glenda Tomáschik at the parks office are available for interested leaders, phone 395-2160.

Roger Andrews set a basketball milestone at Antioch High School Feb. 8, by winning game number 300 in front of a parents night crowd. The 77-43 victory over the Wauconda Bulldogs found each varsity squad member scoring at least two points.

Andrews began his coaching career in 1955 at a small school near Decatur, and then coached in Sheffield for four years.

He came to Antioch in 1960 and coached sophomore basketball for two years. He became head coach in 1962 and has been at it ever since. "It's an honor to coach here, and all the people of Antioch have been so nice," Andrews said.

Andrews received a trophy and plaque at the Friday night contest, and his wife received 18 roses to mark the milestone. "I appreciate everything, but let me just say thanks to these people, because it is a unique honor and pleasure to coach these kids," the happy coach added.

Andrews teaches physical, health and driver education at Antioch Community High School.

Andrews and his wife, Jeannine have three children, Ronna who is married and lives in Berwyn, Mark who lives in Rockford, and Brian who is a sophomore at Rockford College.

Snow, temps down for '80

The January snow report for the Antioch area has been issued by official weather observer Tom (Robbie) Robinson, of Antioch, and it takes no weather expertise to know that this area has been blessed with a mild winter.

According to Robinson, only 8.6 inches of the cold white stuff fell in the month of January, bringing the total amount of snowfall for this winter season to 14.2 inches, three inches above the least amount of total snowfall in 1949.

Up until Feb. 6, the area has received 3.5 inches of snow for the month.

Comparing with last year, the total snowfall for the month of January was 47.5 inches bringing the total of the season to 73.5 inches.

According to Robinson, temperatures are averaging above last year also.

Feb. 27 first date for filing

Feb. 27 is the first filing day for anyone interested in running for a school board seat. Antioch area schools all have vacancies opening for new or re-elected trustees.

Antioch Grade School district will have seats for three members. Board President Gail Heath, and board members Garnet Cook and Bruce Jablonski all have expiring terms.

The high school board also has three vacancies coming up. President Robert Lindblad, Secretary Bette Meyer and Board Member Howard Bonner are finishing three-year terms.

Both Emmons and Grass Lake Grade Schools will be seeking to fill terms on the boards also. At Emmons, Ann Kaiser and Carl Fisher have expiring terms, while President John Steitz, Secretary Marlene Olson and Trustee Greg LaPlante are finishing their terms.

St. Peter's Grade School has three members ending three year terms, however that school seeks board members through its parish. Thomas Merkel, Charles Schwenn and Linda Cermak have completed their terms.

School board terms are for three years, and anyone living within the school district is eligible to file for election. The potential board member must be at least 18 years old and a registered voter.

With exception to St. Peters, all trustees with expiring terms are expected to run again.

The last day to file is March 21.

Jaycettes get ball rolling

The Antioch Jaycettes are a newly formed group of young women in Antioch. In September, members of the Wheeling Jaycee Jills attended an organizational meeting in Antioch to assist in forming the local group.

Officers of the group were elected at the meeting. They are Sue Dubs, president; Roxane Klean, vice president; Bonnie Bruski, secretary; Ginetta Salonen, treasurer; and Betty Davis, state director. There are presently twelve members in the organization.

An organization of 60,000 women, the U.S. Jaycettes provide individual development and leadership training to women between the ages of 18 and 35.

Nationally, Jaycettes actively support such programs as project concern walks for mankind, muscular dystrophy, governmental affairs and today's woman. The Illinois Jaycettes are active in supporting the Illinois Jaycee Crippled Children's Camp Expansion program. The Antioch Jaycettes are members of the Illinois and United States Jaycettes.

THE PURPOSE of the Antioch Jaycettes is to assist the Antioch Jaycees in their service projects, to run community projects of their own, and to provide leadership development for its members.

Some of the projects the Jaycettes have run thus far include running a concession at the Jaycee's haunted house in October, hosting a Christmas party for Jaycee's and their families, and holding a fund raising raffle of a Toro snow shovel in December. The Jaycettes also assisted the Jaycees in their breakfast with Santa project, and their Distinguished Services Awards banquet.

Meetings are usually held on the first Monday evening of each month at the homes of the members. The next meeting will be at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, March 5. The program will be "We are Jaycettes" by the Wheeling Jaycee Jills. Membership is open to any young women eighteen years or over. She need not be a Jaycee wife.

Anyone interested in attending the next meeting of the Antioch Jaycettes may obtain further information by calling Sue Dubs, president at 587-6666, or Mary Schaub, membership chairman, at 395-8798.

MEETING
The Board of Commissioners of the Lake County Forest Preserve District will meet at 9 a.m., Friday, Feb. 15. The meeting was called by president Donald Strenger and will be held on the tenth floor of the County Building in Waukegan.

Program geared to truants

The Antioch Community High School has started a program geared to deal with the ever-escalating problem of truancy among students. According to head counselor, Ed Kurek, the school has set up a program not solely for the slow learner, but for the student that has trouble coming to and staying in school.

"We're trying to teach students that life is structured and that people have to take responsibility in order not to get behind," Kurek said.

He also added that students who miss school become more frustrated by getting so far behind. "They're not necessarily bad kids, it's just that they lose interest and become more frustrated with the more they miss," Kurek said.

The highly structured program finds these students competing with no one but themselves. They attend class throughout the day in only one classroom, thus eliminating the temptation to skip classes. They have their own lockers in the room and also eat lunch there.

The class for the truant students has programs in English, math and social studies. Students are allowed to attend physical education provided they are in good standing in that class.

MEMBERS OF THE teaching staff take a free hour from their day to provide instruction in these subjects. Although teachers are with the student for that short period of time, they make homework assignments and provide the student with no extreme pressures to work against.

"Students meet with a counselor once per week. The counselor follows their progress carefully and works toward getting them back into the regular program," Kurek said.

According to Kurek, parents are involved in the program by signing contracts pledging to bring their children to school if necessary. He also said that most of the students are freshmen in an effort to get to the problem early in their high school career.

The program was devised through the counseling department as a branch of the school's special education programs.

"We're trying to do something more specialized than a catch-all project," he said. "We're trying to provide these kids with concrete help."

OPEN HOUSE — Hundreds of parishioners, parents, friends were welcomed to St. Peter's open house-registration on Feb. 10. Fifth graders at school presented short musical, while eighth grade cheerleaders presented cheers and pom pom routine. Cheerleaders placed first in St. Bede's eleventh annual invitational tournament. All classes at St. Peter's had work on display.

MEETING
The Lake County Bar Association will hold its monthly Business Meeting at the Swedish Glee Club at noon on Tuesday, Feb. 26. The guest speaker will be Mr. Tony Rubiano who is the midwest director of Physical Fitness Institute.

Students plan 1981 classes

Planners for the 1980-1981 school year were distributed to Antioch High School students on Feb. 1. These will be reviewed with serious thought given to course selection to prevent last minute schedule changes in the fall.

According to school superintendent Warren Polley, it is not in the best interest of either taxpayers or students for the school to incur the costs of extra classes and then have students change their minds. The learning of responsibility and obligation to meet commitments is a critical part of education, he added.

Students should plan efficiently so the school can staff efficiently. Enrollment will be completed on Friday, Feb. 15. Any changes must be made by July 11.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Dee Lang of parks and rec is really pleased with the turnout for the winter programs sponsored through the department. Everything is off to a great start, especially aerobic dancing held at the old fire house. Dee stresses that the CPR class offered through the rescue squad, should be taken advantage of as it never hurts to know life saving techniques. Also, there are still many needed to start a girls basketball league which will be held Tuesday evenings at the lower grade school. Dee hopes to get enough girls to have a nice round robin tournament.

With all the talk about getting the old grade school fixed up and getting it registered on the historical record, I thought it would be a good idea to talk to an active historical society member. Needless to say, Betty Lu Williams is looking forward to the possibility of getting the school accepted on the record and hopes this quest will stimulate some interest in the area historical society.

Another note of interest in the historical sense, is the Lake County Farm Bureau working to get on pictorial or written record the history of the barns throughout the area. There are some beautiful barns around, and anyone wishing to be a part of that project should get in touch with the farm bureau by writing Vanishing Heritage, c/o Lake County Farm Bureau, Grayslake.

One of my favorite basketball coaches of all time posted a milestone in his career last Friday, by hitting the 300 win mark in front of a parents' night crowd at Antioch High. Roger Andrew's fighting Sequoits beat Wauconda 77-43, and the nice thing about the game is that each Sequoit team member scored at least two points in the contest. Now if I'm not mistaken, that puts him right up there with Bobby Knight, the famed Indiana University coach who also has 300 wins. Andrews, who has 18 years as varsity basketball coach, will hopefully stay out of Puerto Rico, however. Andrews received a nice trophy and his wife received some nice roses in honor of the fete. It probably would have been more fitting to give the guy some new socks...

Snowballs turned to softballs last weekend at the Dug Out in Trevor. I stopped by on Saturday afternoon, a great sunny day for a ballgame. Seeing all those young men playing their hearts out in the snow, just like it was a championship game in the middle of August made me feel a little homesick for the good old day when the men in town would play those exciting softball games every Sunday afternoon.

One thing that is really different now days, is the songs they sing between games. I thought they would sing 99 bottles of beer on the wall and take me out to the ball game, I never heard of any of them but I still can pickup on a good one quick.

The Wolves from Chicago won the championship by beating the Chicago Bobcats or Icemen which ever you prefer, 8-6. The umpires, Bernie Gunty, Mike Babicz and Joel Kelley, did a wonderful job of calling the games. They were cold but warmed up fast after the last game.

Tommy and Carol Furlan were the hosts for the weekend.

They cooked and served chili, hot soup, hot chocolate and sandwiches, everything needed to keep the boys in shape for more softball games.

On the weekend of Feb. 23 and 24 they will host a co-ed snowball tourney. That will give the wives and girl friends a chance to play. I hope they have a nice weekend for the games. They do need a little more snow though. Their nice people.

Did you know it was Lithuanian Independence Day last Sunday? Lithuanians happen to be the best cooks in the world. They are a pretty proud people, too.

Two Cub Scout packs will merge on Feb. 17 at the 50th anniversary of the Cub Scouts to be observed at the Blue and Gold Banquet which will be held at the Antioch High School. This will be awards night, and there will be loads of fun activities including a balloon man and a magician. Scouting is such a great activity and I congratulate all the people involved with it.

Everyone's favorite Pub owner informed me that there will be an hors d'oeuvre party for Republican candidate for Lake County State's Attorney, Fred Foreman, from 4-7 p.m. on Sunday, March 2 at the Cabriolet Restaurant in Libertyville. Tickets are available through Bill Georgeson at the Village Pub, 395-3373.

World famous psychic, Irene Hughes, will be appearing at the Tower Room at the Antioch Bowl on March 9. I've heard she has a pretty good batting average for predicting and also know that last year when she was there, the crowd was large and enjoyed the day. She is a regular on WMAQ-NBC radio. More information can be obtained through the Antioch Bowl. Superstitions always interested me. People in athletics believe in them, but my favorite person believing in superstitions was Jim in Mark Twain's stories about Tom Sawyer. Now there was a brave statement on that topic.

Antioch Chamber of Commerce Executive Secretary, Dixie Sparks is just so excited about life lately, that she wants to wish everybody a real happy Valentine's Day. She's presently busy working on this year's budget and hopes to tangle through that project before the board meeting on the 25th. Good luck.

Other well wishes are expressed to little Lisa, Brad and Ellen Ipsen's newborn. She was born Feb. 7 and weighed a little over eight pounds.

Kathy Soder, you knew I wouldn't forget you! Happy birthday on the 18th. S'pose you could get a day off?

THANKS

Editor:

On behalf of all of us involved with American Red Cross Blood services of the Mid-America Region, I want to express my personal thanks and appreciation to the people of St. Peter's Church for their participation in the Red Cross bloodmobile held in Antioch on Jan. 26.

I can't overemphasize the importance of community and church participating in Red Cross blood services, and St. Peter's sets a fine example. In a society which is placing increasing emphasis on the concept of community responsibility for supplying blood, the people of St. Peter's showed their care and concern by donating 191 units. With such support, Red Cross can continue to be the largest supplier of blood and blood components throughout the Chicago metropolitan area, including Antioch.

Again, my thanks and deepest appreciation to the people of St. Peter's Church and to Betty Hope and Rev. Horton, who served as the group's chairman and coordinator for the bloodmobile.

Application deadline set for pageant entries

Jack Collins, Illinois State Miss America Pageant field director, has announced that the Miss Antioch Pageant has been renamed the Miss Lakes Region Pageant to reflect the extended boundaries for acceptance of candidates in the northern Lake County area.

The competition to select Miss Lakes Region on March 29, at Antioch Community High School, is sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry. This second annual event is open to all unmarried women age 17 to 26, living, working or going to school in Lake County north at the state line to the southern boundaries including Lake Forest and communities further west including Vernon Hills and Wauconda.

Applications are available at the Antioch Chamber of Commerce office, 880½ Main St., Antioch or may be requested by phone at 395-3381. Mario Good, chairman of the local pageant for Miss Lakes Region, can be reached for additional information at 395-2465. The deadline for filing applications is Saturday, February 16. There are eight applicants to date.

State director Collins has been working with the pageant committee in Antioch to coordinate the community effort of contacting all businesses and organizations for donations of gift items and scholarship contributions. Since the national Miss America Pageant is a non-profit organization where the only beneficiaries of proceeds are the local, state and national pageant contestants, it is hoped that the community members will respond when contacted by Bill Groeninger, co-chairman, and committee member, Bill Anderson. All scholarship donations and prizes will be awarded to Miss Lakes Region and the first runnerup selected on March 29.

WHY A "TEMPORARY" FILLING?

Have you ever had your dentist tell you he was using a "temporary filling" and wondered why? No, my friend, it is not a ploy so he can get a second crack at you. This is a perfectly proper dental procedure.

It is referred to as "indirect capping", and is used in cases where the nerve (or pulp) would be exposed if all the decay were removed from the cavity. Regarded as a conservative treatment, the application of medicated cement in the temporary filling helps the pulp of the tooth to repair itself by containing the decay and allowing the buildup of a wall of tooth structure between the pulp and the decayed material.

This is a "holding action". When your dentist removes the temporary filling, he may take an X-ray to determine if the pulp has healed. If so, the balance of the decay is removed, and a permanent restoration, or filling, can be placed in the tooth.

In summary, your dentist is trying to keep your tooth alive, avoiding the need for a root-canal filling, pulp capping, or extraction of the tooth.

PM&L presents 'refreshing' play

Opening night for "The House of Blue Leaves" at the PM&L Theatre was a disappointment for everyone — except the audience.

The John Guare play is set in an apartment in the Bronx in 1965. The busy production directed by Ken Smouse illustrates how people deal with life's disappointments and makes many social statements, including daring jabs against religion.

Tom Hausman does an excellent job portraying the main character, Artie Shaughnessy, who throughout the play meets disappointment in trying to reach his goals.

Employed as a zoo attendant, Shaughnessy hopes to someday reach his goal as a singer in Hollywood. His wife, Bananas, portrayed by Mickey Mandel, is just that — crazy. Due to obligation felt for his loony wife, Shaughnessy puts off his quest for stardom until he meets the girl downstairs, Bunny Flingus. Bunny, played by Pam Quint, promises marriage (and cooking) if Shaughnessy will call an old friend (Billy Einhorn — Al Kessie) who has made it big in the movies, to get help launching his career.

WHEN EINHORN COMES to New York, the flighty Bunny, leaves Shaughnessy for Einhorn and Australia, making Shaughnessy face yet one more setback.

During the play, Shaughnessy learns that his son, Ronnie Shaughnessy portrayed by Dennis Monzel, is AWOL, and to top things off, the Pope is in town, and it's foaling time at the zoo.

Adding to the play are three nuns, played by Aileen Biel, Rosline Scheske and Nancy Balmes, vying for choice seats to view the Pope from, Einhorn's deaf starlette-girlfriend, Corinna Stroller, played by Carole Mullowney, and short appearances by Steve Albright, the M.P. sent to arrest young Shaughnessy, and Todd Seisser, the man in white from the House of Blue Leaves.

Throughout the play, as throughout life, the main character meets with frustration and humiliation. Shaughnessy has a unique way of dealing with this frustration in the end, again, revealing a parallel with true life.

The PM&L cast is superb; the scenery is semi-superb; and the play is above all expectations. The PM&L group truly outdid itself by reaching for an unusual script and presenting a mature, yet fresh subject to its viewers.

"The House of Blue Leaves" is definitely worth a night out, and will cause viewers to see a little of their own lifestyle in the comical, yet tragic production.

Antioch Upper Grade has undefeated season

The Antioch Upper Grade School eighth grade boys basketball team won the eight-team Antioch Invitational Basketball Tournament to finish their season with 19 wins and no losses. Included in their accomplishments this year was the championship of the Oakcrest Christmas Tournament, winning first place in the Northwest Grade School Conference and a non-conference victory over always powerful Zion Central.

The Antioch Apaches were so dominant that in only one game were they ever behind after the first quarter. In 16 of the 19 games Antioch was never behind.

Antioch averaged 59 points a game while limiting the opposition to an average of 29 points per game.

In the recent tournament conquest, Antioch began with a 72-25 victory over St. Peter's of Antioch. John Humphreys and Bryce Willett combined for 24 points as Antioch's pressure defense led by Joel Bissing and Tom McLellan proved too much for St. Peter's.

The Apache's high scoring front line of Frank Mahar, John Mahar, and Dan Berkiel combined for 43 points in Antioch's semi-final victory over Lake Zurich 72-45.

The championship game featured Antioch against Salem of Wisconsin. Antioch rushed to an 18-9 first quarter lead that grew to 33-20 by half time. However, in building the lead, Frank and John Mahar ran into foul trouble. Tim Preston filled in well and the rest of the team picked up the slack to post a 61-44 championship victory. Dan Berkiel led the scoring with 23 points and Don Kornjek added 16.

Other members of this undefeated squad were Ed Poulos, Barry Proctor, Chris Harp, Matt Mercereau, Jeff VanPatten and John Dugenske.

Antioch High School was the site for an exciting evening of basketball Feb. 8. Aside from the fact that it was parents' night; that the Sequoit varsity basketball team beat a faltering Wauconda team, 77-43; that every member of the Sequoit squad scored at least two points; or that head basketball coach of 18 years, Roger Andrews posted victory number 300, it was just an ordinary Northwest Suburban Conference basketball contest.

The Friday night victory brought the Sequoit season record to the .500 point, something Andrews was hoping to do. "We went into the game hoping to win, because we want to finish the season as a winning team," Andrews said.

The Sequoit's record stands at 5-5 in the NWSC and 10-10 overall. The team has four more contests before tournament play.

The Bulldog's suffered their eleventh loss of the season as the Antioch cagers took full command of the game. The Sequoits posted a 37-17 lead at the end of the first half, and shot 54 percent from the field compared to a poor 34 field percentage shot by the Bulldogs.

The inside game again looked improved as they fed the ball to Ron Nauman, the Sequoit's leading scorer in the contest with 23 points. The exciting outside shooting of Kurt Selak put the icing on the cake as he chipped in 13.

Dee Maras with 11 markers was the other player in double figures.

Nauman grabbed 11 rebounds, while Maras brought down 10.

"The boys put pressure on them the whole time," Andrews said. "That made our defense work and we were patient offensively."

Antioch faces some tough league competition in the next couple weeks with Lake Zurich coming up on Feb. 22. Lake Zurich lost to league-leading Stevenson over this weekend, and Andrews felt that the Sequoits have the confidence needed to win the next games. "Floor-wise we're doing much better. Shooting selection is improving also, and this all makes for a rise in field goal percentages," Andrews said.

Feb. 29 will find the Sequoits facing Warren.

Antioch JV girls suffer first loss

The Antioch Sophomore-Freshmen girls basketball team suffered their first loss of the season at the hands of Warren High School Feb. 9. The loss tied the two team at 7-1 for the lead in the conference. The overall record for the Antioch girls is 14-1.

The Antioch team is led by Sophomore Forward Renee Tell with a total of 87 points and 84 rebounds.

Sophomore Wing Susanne Fritz is second with 85 points and 51 rebounds.

Freshman Forward Shelly Volling has 61 points and 84 rebounds. Sophomore Gail Plechaty runs the team of defense at the point position, while Cathy Blanchette, sophomore, plays the other Wing.

The five starters are always prepared to work hard in order to keep their positions, according to Coach Harold Aberamson.

Freshmen Theresa Weber and Sigrid Ferstl play excellent point position with Donna Gutowski and Dawn Johnson pressing at wing position. Freshman Karla Bolton is playing the "Super Sub" at forward by coming in and scoring points and playing good defense as exemplified by her 10 point total against Grant to assure a win, Aberamson said.

The other two freshmen forwards are Lisa Davis and Laura Hedie. Sophomores Debbie Pederson and Jill Larkin are the other two players of the 14 member squad.

Sequoit varsity wrestlers lose heartbreakers, place second

The Antioch High School Varsity Sequoits accomplished a feat by scoring 143½ points to finish second in the Conference Wrestling Tournament on Feb. 9. Coupled with the Conference Dual meet Antioch finished second in the complicated scoring system.

Antioch was led by four champions, Tad DeRousse 98 pounds, Dave Unrein 112 pounds, Jon Gibson 126 pounds and Jeff Canella 138 pounds. Four other Sequoits also placed high with George Bessette 145 pounds second, Dave Mannina 105 pounds, Scott Buxton hwt., and Chuck Bogaerts 155 pounds, third and Ted Bessette 185 pounds fourth.

The tournament was much closer than predicted with many Antioch wrestlers scoring near misses that could have produced an upset.

Three matches that could have been were Dan Larson's 6-5 loss at 126 pounds, Chuck Bogaerts' losing an identical 6-5 decision and Bill Carney's 7-6 loss at 167 pounds. If Antioch would have won these heartbreakers the championship could have come home to Antioch.

"It was an outstanding performance by our team that we can be proud of" stated Head Coach Ted DeRousse. "As in every tournament there are close matches that can go either way." We are a young team and can't expect to win every close match."

Singled out for special praise was heavyweight Scot Buxton who placed third by beating two opponents who had pinned him during the regular season.

In the championships at 98 pounds, Tad DeRousse fell behind 4-0 with Lake Zurich's Dave Hauk scoring a takedown in the first period and a quick reversal early in the second, but in a flurry of action, DeRousse caught a headlock from the defensive position and scored a fall in 3:20. At 112 pounds, Dave Unrein repeatedly attacked Grant's Tom Vickers but was unable to score against the defensive Bulldog. In the second period, Dave scored an escape for a 1-0 lead but again could not score the takedown against the retreating Vickers. In the third period, Dave had to ride the entire period to score the victory, a very difficult task against a good opponent. Unrein was up to the task as he dominated from the top position to take the title.

At 119 pounds Jon Gibson met another Grant wrestler and aggressively attacked the entire six minutes winning an easy 11-1 decision against the defensive Schindler. The Grant wrestler was warned and penalized against the relentless Gibson. Jon finished his conference career with three straight conference championships.

At 138 pounds, Jeff Canella scored the first takedown but Lake Zurich's Mark Cresad followed with an escape and a takedown to lead 3-2 going into the second period. Jeff reversed, the Lake Zurich wrestler scored a two point near fall in the second to take a 6-3 lead into the third. Attacking from the top position Canella turned and pinned him in 4:34 for his first championship.

The Sequoits return to the mats Feb. 15 when they host the Illinois High School Association District Tournament. The District is the first elimination tournament in the Illinois State Championship series. The first session is at 7 p.m., with the second session at 12:30 p.m. on Feb. 16 and the championships at 6:30 p.m. Saturday night.

Frosh still undefeated in league

Antioch High School's freshmen basketball team clinched at least a tie for the conference title Saturday when they defeated Wauconda 55-28. The frosh are now 11-0 in conference play and 15-3 overall with three games remaining.

Wauconda did not lay down for the league leading Sequoits and trailed only 20-18 at halftime. After some encouraging words from Coach Norm Hahn, the Sequoits blew the Bulldogs out.

Tim Hartokolis scored 15 of his 18 game high points in the second half to lead the charge. Other scores for the league leaders were Tom Anderson with nine points, Derek Olsen with eight and Chris Becker put in six.

The B team also defeated Wauconda. The score was 38-36 as the team rallied the second half. John Andre and David Schumaker topped the scoring with eight points each. Rick Gossman and Jeff Kemper each added six points.

INSURANCE INFORMATION

How is the cost of insurance determined? Do insurance companies just price it for what they think they can get?

No. State insurance laws regulate, to some extent, what rates are set for insurance. The laws specify that rates must be adequate and not excessive nor unfairly discriminatory. Remaining within these guidelines, each insurance company takes its own loss experience into account when setting rates. However, the primary factor in determining how much insurance costs is . . . the coverage desired.
